FOREST FIRES BURNING

Wisconsin, Minnesota and Michigan Again Report Danger.

PLENTY OF RELIEF FURNISHED.

Governor Peck Says That Wisconsin Will Take Care of Her Stricken Citizens. The Death List at Hinckley Growing, but Slowly.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Sept. 6.—The subscriptions for the fire sufferers jumped up yesterday. The first one came from President James J. Hill, of the Great Northern railway, of which road the damaged Eastern Minnesota is a branch, and was for $5,000. Accompanying this was another subscription of $5,000 from President Hill's associate in the Great Northern, Sir Donald Smith, of Montreal. Several New York commercial firms turned in $1,300, while the agents of the leading New York insurance companies gave $1,000. Altogether the money contribution up to this time will aggregate $25,000.

Minneapolis has already raised $12,000, and is rapidly increasing the amount, and Duluth has a fund of $10,000, while every town in the state have sent smaller amounts. A message was received in this city from Governor Peck, of Wisconsin, asking that to avoid confusion in furnishing supplies the Minnesota people look after their state, that Wisconsin would take charge of all the suffering in theirs. Yesterday two car loads of provisions from this city reached Shell Lake, and other sections are equally well provided for.

Reports from the north are to the effect that Carlton, Kerrick and Barnum are in danger. The fires now surround those places, and are raging furiously. So dense is the smoke at Carlton that the operator there said he could not see across the street. One report was current in this city that Barnum had been destroyed, but it has been impossible to confirm the report. The men of Kerrick have sent the women and children to West Superior and Duluth for safety, and remained behind to fight the fires.

STILL FINDING DEAD BODIES.

The Remains of Seven Persons Taken to Hinckley Yesterday.

PINE CITY, Minn., Sept. 6.—The death roll at Hinckley is growing, but slowly. Yesterday the remains of three bodies were brought in from the eastern county road. One was a man. Of the other two there was left but a hand and a leg. The hand was that of a child, but the leg was that of a boy. Later in the forenoon the bodies of Mr. Lovell and his family, four altogether, were recovered. They lived about two miles north of the town. Searching parties are out in all directions, but their orders are to bury the dead where they lie. The seven bodies brought in bring the total number in Hinckley up to 131, and in the vicinity of Hinckley to upwards of 200.

As yet it has been impossible to approach the burned district. The heap of sawed wood and buildings which mark its bank are still sending up dense clouds of blinding smoke, rendering it impossible for a man to get near the water. It has been decided to drain off the water, as it is now supposed that there are many bodies in the pond. At Pine City the work of relief is running smoothly.

Millions of Feet of Timber Burned.

WEST SUPERIOR, Wis., Sept. 6.—Along the line of the Omaha railroad south of here the fires are still burning. At Superior Junction the fires are reported very bad but at last accounts the town was still safe. At Poplar three residences, a school house, railroad ties and cedar poles and millions of feet of timber were burned. A small settlement about twenty miles north of Iron River burned to the ground Tuesday night, but the residents escaped.

Michigan Forests Ablaze.

ISHPEMING, Mich., Sept. 6.—This city is again enveloped in smoke, the fires in the forests having started afresh. A party of campers eight miles west of here were driven out of the woods by the raging flames yesterday. They drove their horses through miles of fire and smoke, narrowly escaping. The damage here is confined to crops and timber, as the fire is some distance from settlements.

Two Villages Endangered.

MANISTIQUE, Mich., Sept. 6.—Forest fires are raging fiercely in this vicinity. The villages of South Manistique and Thompson are in considerable danger. Conditions are favorable for a disastrous fire throughout the county of Schoolcraft.

Their Resignations Requested.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 6.—Secretary Carlisle yesterday asked for the resignations of James P. Low, of Massachusetts, chief of the engineering and drafting division in the office of the supervising architect of the treasury; Peter S. Garretson, of New Jersey, chief of the accounts division, and Frank Milliken, of Maine, chief of the record division of the same office. All of these officials are Republicans, and their places will be filled by Democrats. The reorganization of the department under the Dockery law will result in the dismissal of about 152 clerks about Oct. 1.

VANDERBILT'S IN CONTROL

Uniting with Rothschilds and Morgans for Southern Railroad Extension.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., Sept. 6.—From a thoroughly reliable source The Times is informed that the underwriters, as they may be termed, of the reorganization scheme of the Richmond and West Point Terminal and the East Tennessee, Virginia and Georgia Railroad company, are none other than the Rothschilds, of London and Paris, and the Vanderbilts, of New York—Cornelius and William K.

The reorganization, as is well known, was undertaken and successfully consummated by Drexel, Morgan & Co., of London. These two great banking houses interested their richest clients—the Rothschilds and Vanderbilts. The syndicate really is very small in numbers, for it is divided into four portions, but is colossal in wealth, representing the greatest aggregation of capital in the world—more than half a billion dollars.

The Rothschilds have one quarter, the Vanderbilts one quarter, Drexel, Morgan & Co one quarter and J. S. Morgan & Co. a quarter. The reorganization plan provided for $30,000,000 of new capital, and it is this sum that the quartet has agreed to supply and more if necessary. The money is to be used in heavier rails, new bridges, new equipment, terminals, extensions, etc. The first annual meeting of stockholders is to be held in Richmond, Va., Tuesday, Oct. 2, and bonds to the amount of $120,000,000 on the entire property will be authorized.

There is now very little doubt that the southern railway project is simply an extension of the Vanderbilt system into and through the south. The Chesapeake and Ohio will no doubt become a part of the system within a short time, and the Queen and Crescent system will ultimately become part of it.

GOVERNOR WAITE RENOMINATED.

The Convention Refused to Listen to His Principal Opponent.

PUEBLO, Colo., Sept. 6.—The Populist state convention yesterday refused to listen to Thomas M. Patterson, leader of of the opposition to Governor Waite's renomination, and the Patterson delegation left for Denver, followed by a dozen other delegates.

Governor Waite was renominated on the first ballot, receiving all but half a dozen votes, which were given to Congressman Pence. The nomination was later made unanimous. When introduced to the convention he was greeted with tremendous cheers.

Governor Waite, after thanking the convention for the honor bestowed on him by the renomination, said: "I do not take this as an indorsement of all my official acts, as I know I have made many grievous mistakes, but I take it as an expression of confidence in me, and that I have acted honestly, if not always wisely."

Congressman Pence, in response to loud calls, made a speech urging the support of the ticket. He said that under no circumstance would he be a candidate for any office.

Henry of Navarre Beats Banquet.

NEW YORK, Sept. 6.—In the bay stake race run at Sheepshead yesterday only Henry of Navarre, Banquet, Yo Tambien and Sir Walter participated, and that was the order of favoritism. When they were sent away neither seemed to want to make the pace, but finally Sir Walter and Yo Tambien did so. This was the way they ran up to the last half, when Henry of Navarre and Banquet got away from the others as if they were standing still, and began the fight through the stretch. Simms, on Banquet, did a good deal of crowding, but Taral outrode him and landed the three-year-old in the first place by a head.

Employers Urge a Conference.

TRENTON, Sept. 6.—The manufacturing potters of this state have addressed a letter to the operative potters, who have been out on strike for several months, asking for a conference for the purpose of discussing a reduction of wages from the scale agreed upon when the strike was settled a few weeks ago. The manufacturers name no figures in their communication to the men, but say that a reduction is imperative on account of the new tariff laws. The men have not yet sent a reply.

Killed by a Falling Tree.

POINT ARKAN, Cal., Sept. 6.—A party from San Francisco, including W. W. Higginson, second officer of the steamer Oakland, his wife and daughter, William Spohn and Ed Reed were camped on Garcia river, ten miles from this place. Early in the morning they were awakened by the cracking of a large redwood tree. The men ran, but the ladies stopped to dress. The tree fell over both tents, killing Mrs. Higginson and her daughter Sadie, and breaking a leg of both Spohn and Reed.

The Trouble Over.

A prominent man in town exclaimed the other day: "My wife has been wearing out her life from the effects of Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint and Indigestion. Her case baffled the skill of our best physicians. After using three packages of Bacon's Celery King for the Nerves she is almost entirely well." Keep your blood in a healthy condition by the use of this great vegetable compound. Call at John J. Chambers, 21 West Main Street opp. Runyons grocery, sole agent, and get a trial package free. Large sizes 50c and 25c.

Dr. Hand's Diarrhœa Mixture.

"My baby is subject to severe attacks of diarrhœa. During the last sickness, Dr. Hand's Diarrhœa Mixture was freely given and an immediate cure resulted. It would have required a dozen visits of a physician as on former occasions. I believe Dr. Hand's Remedies would have saved the life of the child I lost, had they been within my reach at the time of its sickness." Mrs. F. H. Bennett, 722 New street, Camden, N. J. Sold at all drug stores, 25 cents.

KEYSTONE REPUBLICAN CLUBS.

Mayor Everett Warren Succeeds Mr. Robinson as President.

HARRISBURG, Sept. 6.—At the convention of the State League of Republican clubs yesterday there were 190 organizations represented by one or more delegates. The speech of welcome was made by A. Wilson Norris, and was responded to by President Robinson in a brief speech urging increased organization.

The resolutions presented were unanimously adopted, being frequently interrupted by applause. The platform indorses the state ticket, pledges the league to work for the ticket, indorses the action of the minority in congress, denounces the Democratic nominees, and condemns the policy of the Democratic administration. Finally it appeals to the people to put the seal of condemnation on the Democratic party. A supplementary report denounces the lynching outrages in the south.

After the reading of the resolutions the names of delegates and alternates to the national convention were presented by the committee and unanimously indorsed.

A. J. Colburn, Jr., of Scranton, placed in nomination Major Everett Warren, of Scranton, for president of the league. David Martin and Chris L. Magee escorted Major Warren to the presence of the convention. He made a brief speech in acceptance of the unanimous honor conferred upon him.

A. Wilson Norris of Harrisburg, John M. Clark of Pittsburg, B. Frank Eshelman of Lancaster, Isadore Sobel of Erie, Stephen B. Gibson of Philadelphia, Edward W. Parchal of Warren, Harry S. Lyon of Reading and Guy C. Irish of Mahanoy City were chosen vice presidents. Mahlon D. Young of Philadelphia was re-elected secretary, and N. D. Randolph of Pittsburg treasurer.

A ratification meeting was held last night in the opera house, at which addresses were made by General Hastings, Senator Lyon and the other candidates on the state ticket.

A POLITICAL MURDER

Shooting at a Public Meeting Results in the Death of One Man.

WAYNE, W. Va., Sept. 6.—Murder was the result of a political meeting here Tuesday night. One man was killed and three others seriously wounded.

Ex-Governor Wilson, Democratic candidate for the United States senate to succeed Senator Camden, made a speech, and after he had finished United States Marshal Vinson, who is a strong Camden man, attempted to address the crowd. There was hooting and calling, and one of Vinson's deputies drew and fired.

The firing then became general, three of the deputies joining in it, and it is charged that Vinson also fired several shots. Vinson and his men jumped on their horses and fled. William Frizzel, one of the Wilson supporters, was the man who was killed. He was shot through the stomach, and died yesterday.

There is intense indignation, and steps will be made to have all the marshals arrested at once and ousted from office.

Regulars Defeat the Militia.

SEA GIRT, N. J., Sept. 6.—The rifle meeting continued yesterday. The principal match of the day was for the interstate regiment trophy, a cup offered for competition between teams of six men from the national guard of all states and the regular army. The cup was won by the engineer corps of the District of Columbia by a score of 514. The First regiment of the Maine national guard was second, with a score of 507, and the First regiment of the Georgia national guard third with 503. The New Jersey national guard match was won by the Second regiment by a score of 472. The Fourth regiment scored 463.

Police Officer Murdered by Burglars.

CLEVELAND, O., Sept. 6.—Police Sergeant Nicholas Sheehan was murdered at daylight by two burglars whom the officer was pursuing. The burglars opened fire on the sergeant and he fell to the sidewalk dead, with a bullet in his breast. The murderers are still at large and the police have as yet no clew to their identity. Later it was found that the burglars had made an unsuccessful attempt to blow open the safe in the office of the Ohio Provision company.

Balloon Struck by Lightning.

ALDERSHOT, Eng., Sept. 6.—A strange accident occurred during some experiments with a military captive balloon, which were taking place in the presence of the Duke of Connaught. While the balloon was being hauled down by means of a wire rope it was struck by lightning, and, the electric fluid running down the rope, knocked down and seriously injured three members of the engineer corps who were at the rope. The three soldiers are not expected to live.

A MONSTER CAVE IN.

The Mining Town of Scotch Valley Swallowed Up.

ESCAPE OF FIFTY MINE WORKERS.

Their Usual Means of Exit Cut Off, the Men Finally Make Their Way to the Surface, Aided by Rescuers, Through an Air Shaft.

LOFTY, Pa., Sept. 6.—The little mining town of Scotch Valley, in Lackawanna county, near this place, was swallowed up last night in one of the most complete mine caves in ever known in this region. The scene of the disaster is on the eastern slope of Mount Lookout, the score of houses composing the hamlet being at the mouth of the shaft of Mount Lookout colliery. The wildest excitement prevails throughout the region, and details of the cave in are fragmentary. It is known, however, that the dozen houses on either side of the principal street of the hamlet are completely swallowed up in the gaping sinkhole, and nothing can be seen of the other buildings of the town but the roof gables and chimneys. It is impossible to estimate accurately the number of fatalities. Rescuing parties are now exerting every means to release the occupants of the engulfed dwellings. Fortunately, but one of the buried houses has thus far taken fire.

The cave in was caused by the giving away of the timber supports in workings of the Mount Lookout colliery, which have not been in operation for about two years. About 5 o'clock last evening the inhabitants of the hamlet were startled by the rumbling, thunder like reports which warned them of the falling of tons of rock and debris into the deserted caverns of the abandoned mine, many feet beneath them. The terror stricken people were still further horrified when the ground trembled and swayed like an earthquake beneath them, and then the ill fated village sank out of sight in the gaping cavity.

Meanwhile some fifty miners were imprisoned in the colliery, blindly stumbling through the dark passages, looking for a means of escaping from their living grave. They had been at work in a new portion of the mine, and were suddenly terrified by the thunder of the crashing rock and stone between them and daylight. Their usual means of exit from the mine was completely wiped out by the cave in. James Perrin, one of the oldest of the miners, got the handful of men together, however, and started to lead them up through a tunnel which had been used as an air shaft, but which led to the surface through a series of steep slopes.

The men had not gone far, however, before the accumulation of coal damp warned them of the danger lurking in the air. It was necessary for them to extinguish their lamps to guard against an explosion, and the remainder of their desperate journey became a blind groping about in the dark in the footsteps of their leader.

Meanwhile a rescuing party on the surface had made an attempt to cut a passage through the mass of debris which blocked the main entrance. Failing in this some of the more daring of the rescuers descended the air passage, and happened to penetrate the slope where the imprisoned miners were struggling upwards. The men were carried to the surface, where a great crowd of excited, panic stricken people were awaiting them. The work of rescuing the persons imprisoned in the engulfed houses is still in progress.

Street Car Held Up by Footpads.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 6.—A street car on the Cass avenue line, when near Warren street late at night, was boarded by two men who ordered the passengers and train crew to throw up their hands, at the same time flourishing pistols. Conductor Van Arthur made a fight and was badly beaten. The motorman was held captive by one of the men while the other robbed Van Arthur. The robbers then escaped. Van Arthur has a fractured skull, and is thought to be fatally injured.

Terribly Beaten by Burglars.

BETHLEHEM, Pa., Sept. 6.—Safron Haas, a cobbler living in this city, had $2,000 concealed in his shop, which was broken into by burglars during the night. The thieves attacked Haas with a blackjack and beat him almost to death, but did not succeed in getting the money, as the police came in time to frighten them away. Haas' skull is fractured in half a dozen places, and he will probably die. He is 60 years old, a bachelor, and lived alone.

The torture of dyspepsia and sick headache, the agonizing itching and pain of salt rheum, are removed by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

The Doctors Endorse It.

At a regular meeting of the Genesee County (N. Y.) Medical Society, the physicians of the county passed a vote of thanks for samples of Gilmore's Aromatic Wine, which had been presented to the society, and said that they recognized the remedy as being adapted to a large class of summer diseases. Physicians everywhere recommend this excellent medicine, especially to their lady patients. Sold by all druggists for $1.00 per bottle.

NOT A RACE WAR.

The Whites Took No Part in the Fight Against Gaston.

ATLANTA, Ga., Sept. 6.—Gaston's negro deportation scheme is broken up, temporarily at least, in Hancock county. Gaston himself has a pistol ball in his head, Crawford Holsey has a broken thigh and Isaac Dickson will die from wounds which he received in the fight on Monday night. Anna Jenkins, wife of the man who led the opposition to Gaston, is badly hurt. The fight was altogether among the negroes, and the whites had nothing to do with it.

Dan Jenkins, a leading negro of Hancock county, told his people that Gaston was deluding them, and that his emigration scheme was a swindle. This incensed Gaston and his lieutenants, and they threatened Jenkins.

Gaston, who was formerly in Atlanta and worked up a deportation scheme, has been in Hancock county for three or four months. He collected $1 from every man, woman and child enrolled as a colonist for Liberia. He is a plausible talker, and had 3,000 of his race pledged. Time and again he appointed a day for the departure, but when the time arrived Gaston was somewhere else.

After frequent disappointments some of the emigrants began to believe what Jenkins and their white friends had told them. But it was too late. They had sold their property. Gaston had part of the money and the balance they had spent. Some of them became desperate, and a number of them armed themselves and called on Gaston for the purpose of having him refund their money. Gaston rallied a number of negroes to his assistance and a battle ensued.

The planters sympathized with Jenkins, who was working for the best interests of his people. This fact has been distorted into active participation by the whites in Monday night's fight.

Murdered His Youthful Wife.

JACKSONVILLE, Sept. 6.—William F. Hayes, a young white man, 20 years old, a fisherman by occupation, murdered his 16-year-old wife and dangerously wounded his mother-in-law, Mrs. Susan Mason, in East Jacksonville. Hayes' wife had left him on account of cruelty several months ago and had gone to live with her mother. Hayes appeared at the house and was admitted. Without provocation he began shouting, first wounding Mrs. Mason twice in the head and once in the side. His wife ran behind the bed and he followed her, shooting her through the back, the ball passing through the heart out of her left breat and through her left hand. Searching parties are now after the murderer.

Victory for the Heirs.

CHICAGO, Sept. 6.—Judge Sears entered a decree declaring void the deed by which $60,000 in real estate belonging to the estate of Mrs. Magnusson Jewett, the famous singer, had been transferred to the wife of Attorney J. R. McDowell. McDowell had drawn up the singer's will, and out of property worth $100,000 a bequest of $25,000 was given him. It was charged by the other heirs that McDowell then fraudently conveyed $60,000 worth of real estate to his wife. Judge Sears granted an injunction restraining the attorney from interfering with the estate.

The Peacemaker Murdered.

LOCK HAVEN, Pa., Sept. 6.—A. Winchester and Joseph Moore quarreled last night over money matters, and a fight ensued, during which Winchester drew a dirk knife and stabbed Moore three times. William Reeder interfered and aided Moore to break away. The latter ran and Winchester turned upon Reeder, cutting him about the face and neck. The knife severed Reeder's jugular vein, killing him instantly. Moore may recover, but his wounds are serious. Winchester is in jail.

Killed by a Railroad Train.

SHAMOKIN, Pa., Sept. 6.—William Curnew, a coal inspector at Midvalley colliery, was run down by a railroad train and had both legs and one arm severed from his body. His 16 year-old son was the only witness to the accident, and instead of summoning aid ran to his home in Mount Carmel. Mr Curnew was dead when his body was found an hour later. He was a man of wealth, and leaves a wife and four children.

Looks Well for New Bedford Strikers.

NEW BEDFORD, Mass., Sept. 6.—A break occurred in the ranks of the mill owners yesterday afternoon, which will undoubtedly result in the resumption of work in all the mills next week. The directors of the Kilburn corporation practically decided to start up on Monday next. The Bristol mill was the first cloth manufacturing [illegible] to resume [illegible] the present [illegible].

DEMPSEY VS. M'CARTHY

They Battle for Twenty Rounds at New Orleans.

THE CONTEST DECLARED A DRAW.

While It Was Evident to the Big Crowd Assembled That Dempsey Was the Better Man, He Was Unable to Knock Out the Australian.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 6.—Jack Dempsey and Billy McCarthy, of Australia, fought last night in the arena of the Auditorium Athletic club before a very large audience. Both men were carefully trained, the exponpareil having fitted on the coast of Georgia and in the gymnasium of the Young Men's Gymnastic club, of this city. McCarthy has been in constant training for two months at Captain Smith's quarters in the upper district of this city. Both men entered the ring, followed by their seconds, at 9 o'clock, each receiving a good share of applause, but the greeting given to Dempsey clearly showed that his friends were in the majority. The contest was confined to twenty rounds. Interested spectators were Bob Fitzsimmons and Stanton Abbott.

John Duffy entered the ring a few moments after 9 o'clock to take charge as referee. Dempsey weighed in at 146 pounds, McCarthy weighing 154 pounds, the exact limit. Time was called at 9:15 o'clock.

First Round—Mac led for the stomach. Dempsey missed a right swing for the head. Mac was on the aggressive. Dempsey scored a body blow. Dempsey landed a right on the head. Both landed heavy swings on the head. Both men landed left on the jaw and both scored heavy swings.

Second Round—Mac scored a right on the body. Both landed blows on the head. The Australian was aiming for the body and Dempsey for the head. Dempsey missed a left swing for the head and caught the Australian on the nose a moment later. Dempsey scored a heavy blow on the neck and landed on the body a moment later, but received a left hander. McCarthy was caught by a heavy left hand swing on the jaw. This was Jack's round.

Third Round—Dempsey landed a left on the nose, and the men clinched. McCarthy missed two vicious rights, but ran into a heavy right on the jaw. Dempsey landed another right on the jaw, nearly knocking McCarthy down. The Australian received terrible punishment in this round.

Fourth Round—Dempsey landed a heavy left on his opponent's nose and got away. Both men scored blows on the head. Mac missed a left lead for the body. Dempsey landed a heavy swing on the stomach, and a moment later in the same spot. Mac ducked into a heavy uppercut, and got it again with the right on the head before he could recover. This was another Dempsey round.

From the fifth round out Dempsey did most of the execution, though Mac got in a few vicious blows on the head and body of his opponent. While it was evident to the spectators that Dempsey was the better man, he was unable to knock his opponent out, and the referee was therefore obliged to declare the bout a draw, the purse of $2,000 being divided.

FACTS ABOUT FAIRS.

THEY WERE ORIGINALLY HELD AS ANNUAL GENERAL MARKETS.

Such Fairs Are Still Held In Some Parts of Europe, the Most Famous Perhaps Being That of Nijni Novgorod—Irish Fairs. The German "Masch."

This is the season of the county fair, one of the most curious and interesting of human observances. The county fair as held in the United States is an evolution from the fair of remote antiquity and has its counterpart in every country whose inhabitants are lifted above the level of abject savagery. But, though all fairs possess features in common and all sprang from the same beginning, they differ greatly in different lands.

The object of all is the promotion of business. The first established annual fair was a market, pure and simple, where producers, merchants and consumers could meet once a year and do their buying, selling and trading for a whole twelvemonth in the space of a few days, leaving the remainder of the year for industrial operations, or, in case the transactions of the fair had been sufficiently profitable, for idleness or pleasure seeking. It was found shortly after this fair was established that it was a really great institution, and other fairs sprang up in other places, and merchants of various sorts came in time to spend the whole year at the fairs and in traveling between them. This brought together men of diverse races, dress, tongues and customs. This alone made the fairs of antiquity interesting and amusing as spectacles and valuable from an educational point of view. But it is not to be supposed that it was very long before forms of amusement were provided for amusement's sake. Merchants, producers and purchasers alike would find themselves exhausted at the close of a day devoted to business and ready to pay for the services of those who had made a business of the amusing arts. Therefore jugglers, dancing men and women, singers, players and gamblers—for the passion for games of chance is as old as humanity—all found it profitable for them to attend the fairs as well as for the merchants. Thus in time it came to be that while the chief object of every fair remained commercial the booths of the amusement providers were quite as much in evidence and as essential to the holding of a satisfactory fair as the booths of the merchants. Not all of the amusements were innocent, and there were drinking and debauchery as well as business at every fair.

In the oriental world the fairs are still exclusively of the antique type slightly sketched here, and most European fairs retain the old time features. The most famous fair of the old school in the whole world is the one held annually at Nijni Novgorod, a town of central Russia, at which dealers not only from all Russia, but also from nearly all Asia, meet for business purposes from Aug. 5 to Sept. 15.

Neither admission nor entrance fees are exacted at these fairs beyond the rent of the ground on which the merchants pitch their tents or erect their temporary buildings. It is the immediate doing of business that is sought, and the display produced is entirely incidental, though often quite as attractive and imposing as it could well be made if the fair were conducted along western lines.

In America, as we all know, the trading part of the fair has practically disappeared. The promotion of business is quite as much the purpose of the fair here as elsewhere, but the method of achieving that purpose is quite different. The American fair is primarily an exhibition, and the exhibitor, instead of seeking to sell his goods at the fair, strives to make as good a show as possible in order to let the people who go to the fair, as a spectacle, know the quality of goods or products he has regularly for sale. The premiums offered by the fair associations serve as double incitements to excellence of exhibition, and many associations strictly forbid sales of anything within the boundaries of their grounds except eatables, drinkables and curiosities. The cattle and horses, the fruits, the grains, the flowers and the edible roots, the cunning handiwork of maid and matron, the machinery, the general merchandise—all these things are present for exhibitionary purposes only and must not be sold till the fair is over, the idea being that if sales are allowed the handsomest horses, the sleekest cattle, the fattest pigs, the biggest squashes, the most beautiful flowers and the most elaborate work of the women will disappear early in the life of the fair and so cease to serve as drawing cards for spectators, from whose admittance fees the main profits of the fair association are forthcoming.

It is possible that you have never watched the slow growth of a favorite pumpkin intended for the fair, and that you have never "raised" hen or heifer, hog or horse for exhibition. If you have not, you do not know what worry is, according to a confession recently made to me by a comfortably stout old agriculturist, whose parlor walls are hung with diplomas and decorated with many lead and bronze, a few silver and one or two gold medals, mute witnesses of his past triumphs as an exhibitor. Possibly your women folk have never crocheted and embroidered and "patchworked" and cooked for the fair, in which case you are entitled to be thankful and take courage for the future. So indeed you are if you have never fallen a victim to the wheels of fortune and other snares for the money and the virtue of the unwary that are spread out so freely and with such accurate knowledge of what is most seductive to the rural heart at every county fair the whole land over. If you have been such a victim, you have probably learned to revise your early estimate of your own shrewdness, and you certainly have had many comrades in your folly.

No matter how much the fairs of the orient and the occident may differ, they have one feature in common—they serve as a means of bringing together persons who do not otherwise often meet. In England and Ireland the fair is in some localities the social event of the twelvemonth, and so it is indeed in many parts of the United States. There is, however, a good deal more of romance mixed up in the fairs of the old world everywhere than there is with those of the new anywhere. This may be in spite of and it may be because of the fact that one of the objects of the early fairs in the British islands and in Europe generally—object that obtains to some extent even yet—was the exhibition of human animals as well as brute creatures—that is, at fair time the farm servants—in America we should call them "hired help"—were engaged by the farmers for the ensuing year. Accordingly all the stalwart, broad shouldered young men who wanted situations used to range themselves in line for inspection in one part of the grounds, while the pink and white but no less sturdy women—strapping damsels they have been termed—showed themselves in similar lines to possible employers in another part.

It has always been held that it was allowable to indulge more freely in business prevarications at fair time than at other seasons, and Goldsmith, in "The Vicar of Wakefield," has told how shrewd were the dealers at English fairs in his day. A story of recent trickery at an Irish fair has it that a farmer who had a cow to sell fastened a false tail to the animal, her own caudal appendage having been lost through accident. This trick was its own undoing, however, for while all the other cows at the fair fought the flies furiously with their tails this poor beast never moved hers. This singular circumstance was noticed by the purchaser in time to enable him to call the sale off. The owner, in his talk with the buyer, had declared that he hoped that if he were lying about the cow "the two at home in the cradle might be burned to ashes before he got back." This ingenious oath taker confided to a friend afterward that he ran no risk on using this formula, for he had placed two sods in the cradle before starting to the fair "to take the vinom out of" his oath. The business of the day at an Irish or English fair is practically done by 4 o'clock in the afternoon, and then the merry-making begins in earnest. Of course the Irish lads and lassies begin their pleasures after a more lightsome fashion than do the English and sometimes wind it up more uproariously. Dancing is always a feature, of course, and "dancing light" is a great accomplishment with the daughters of Erin. It was an Irish versifier who wrote, "Dance light, for my heart it lies under your feet, love."

The German fair is called a "jahrmarkt," and the old oriental idea obtains largely in its conduct. The German "masch," a mixture, possesses many of the characteristics of the American county fair—that, is, it is a gathering of the people for amusement, and all sorts of cheap and simple pleasures are afforded, as merry go rounds and the like, besides some not so innocent, but the only exhibitions are of the side show variety, and no prizes are offered for big vegetables or fat hogs. At no fairs outside of America are there contests of equine speed. In fact, races of horses are almost unknown at old world fairs, but in this country a fair without either trotting or running matches could hardly be expected to be a success.

This is the way we spell it. It's necessary to mention it, because some women don't seem to know. We find so many who say they use Pearline, and then, upon examination, find that what they are using is only some imitation of it.

See if your package is marked as above. There is only one Pearline. It makes white things whiter—bright things brighter—economical and saves at every point. For washing and cleaning, nothing under any other name can equal it.

Send Peddlers and some unscrupulous grocers will tell you "this is as good as" or "the same as Pearline." IT'S FALSE—Pearline is never peddled, it Back and if your grocer sends you something in place of Pearline, be honest—send it back. 414 JAMES PYLE, N. Y

"America's Greatest Men and Women."

AMERICA'S GREATEST MEN AND WOMEN.

MR. WILSON TALKS.

MY Name is Wilson; I do an insurance business on LaSalle street, in Chicago Ill., and I live in Evanston, Ill. Evanston is what was originally a scattering population on a pretty point on Lake Michigan, esteemed years ago far from the city of Chicago, but now one of the varied towns which may go within it by vote of the population.

I am married and have a wife and one child. That child is a boy (I suppose I should feel the same solicitude if it was a girl), and I have a father's natural fancies as to what must be the best thing to give that child the right kind of intelligence, and so divert his course that he may succeed in life. I have studied a great deal upon the subject. My own experience would not be of great value, because I have succeeded only to the limit of the average man and am barely established; still, I own the house and lot upon which I live, and am feeling perfectly safe in meeting the exigencies of the year. I want the boy to take a broader view than I did to be a bigger man in the world. I have studied how to teach him to do that, and he has done pretty well, as far as the preliminaries go. Now, I have thought over what I should say to him and have sometimes been puzzled. I could not very well tell himwhat to do. I wanted to tell him whatI needed but what I did not learn myself when I was of his age, and what my father did not know how to tell me, or else was not thoughtful enough to do so. I wanted to tell him how to follow the example of those who have succeeded at the present time and under the circumstances which ordinarily affect a young man struggling in this Republic established on this comparatively new world to-day. I wanted to tell him just what he had better do to get along well, and to point out to him what had been done by the people who were successful at the present time.

Of course, the record of the people of any time past would not be of so much value, because circumstances must necessarily have been different when they were alive. I feel confident, though, that if I could learn, some way and somehow, what the people who are so successful to-day have done and how they did it, I could give to my boy such advice as would make his own life at least as far removed from failure as justified by the natural ability he may possess.

I looked around for some authority which I might consult in order to give him the facts most essential with this idea of mine in mind, but I could find none until I discovered that a great publishing firm in Chicago had decided to bring out a book giving the photographs of all the people who are prominent in America to-day. Here was what I wanted. The book, as I have learned, is going to be published in 16 parts, 16 pages to each, with a recent photograph on each page of some active leading American man or woman of to-day, while underneath appears the story of that same person's life—the story telling what that person did, and how the ends attained were eventually accomplished. Here was what I wanted; here was what I needed in various ways; here was what I was certainly seeking in order to obtain the information with which to educate my boy and secure for him that knowledge which will give him a source of thought and make him prominent in the world.

I have the first sheets of this work. It is a graphic story of America's Greatest Men and Women, told in each instance on a single page underneath a photograph of recent date, which conveys to the eye an idea of what that person is. To me the photograph tells even more than the suggestive record beneath; and yet it is odd how in each instance the correct story corresponds with the expression upon the face which is reproduced in the portrait above. I do not know how the series will end. I know very little about this new feature of the newspaper people; I know nothing about the publishers and their expectations, but I do know this: that if the series so begun should be continued to its practical, ordinary good sense end—and I don't care whether that will include 200 or 700 of America's Greatest Men and Women, which is the title of the book—I do know this, that for the ordinary, active and alert business man—I will certainly say far more for the student or the literary man, or the politician or the statesman—for all these I will say it will be simply the most valuable and the most remarkable book produced in modern history. The wonder is that some one has not thought of it before. Yet no one seems to have done so since the days of Plutarch. Plutarch knew something. That shrewd old fellow knew that all who would get out of the drift, all who would accomplish great things, wanted to know every detail of the lives of those who had better luck or more courage or a broader brain than their fellows; but I am no authority on these points. I only know that there is produced a second Plutarch's Lives, that its biographies are shrewd, graphic and curt, and written without bias and without prejudice. I only know that there was a Plutarch—God bless the old fellow—and that there is this modern work.

This is the work I am going to give to my boy. I am going to make him read it thoroughly. The work is announced as consisting of 16 Parts, with 16 pages and 16 photographs in each part, and when bound, the whole series will make a great volume of 256 pages, the like of which has never been equaled. It is the story of the personal character of the men and women who are making the nation's history at this particular time. What a work this is! Do you imagine that I would miss it for my boy, or, incidentally, for myself?

LIKE A THIEF IN THE NIGHT,

Consumption comes. A slight cold, with your system in the scrofulous condition that's caused by impure blood, is enough to fasten it upon you. Consumption is Lung-Scrofula. You can prevent it, and you can cure it, if you haven't waited too long, with Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. For Scrofula, Weak Lungs, Bronchitis, Asthma, and all severe, lingering Coughs PIERCE guarantees a CURE.

Before taking the "Discovery" I would have four or five bad coughing spells every day and would cough up mouthfuls of solid white froth, and before I took one bottle it stopped it. I could not walk across the room with the pain in my side and chest but soon the pain was all gone, and I could sleep well at night. My general health is much better since I have been taking the "Golden Medical Discovery" although I have been obliged to work hard.

KNOWLEDGE

Brings comfort and improvement and tends to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many, who live better than others and enjoy life more, with less expenditure, by more promptly adapting the world's best products to the needs of physical being, will attest the value to health of the pure liquid laxative principles embraced in the remedy, Syrup of Figs.

Its excellence is due to its presenting in the form most acceptable and pleasant to the taste, the refreshing and truly beneficial properties of a perfect laxative; effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers, and permanently curing constipation. It has given satisfaction to millions and met with the approval of the medical profession, because it acts on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels without weakening them and it is perfectly free from every objectionable substance.

Syrup of Figs is for sale by all druggists in 50 cent bottles, but it is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, whose name is printed on every package, also the name, Syrup of Figs, and being well informed, you will not accept any substitute if offered.

Assassinated on the Street.

HENRIETTA, Tex., Sept. 6—J W. Witt, secretary of the Twelfth congressional district committee and superintendent of public schools at Decatur, was assassinated at the latter place by S Simmons, a young business man of Sherman. The tragedy occurred in a public street at Decatur. It is alleged that undue intimacy existed between Witt and a sister of Simmons, and that Witt openly boasted of it. Simmons was arrested.

Stony Creek Filled with Dead Fish.

NORRISTOWN, Pa., Sept 6.—Dead fish are floating on Stony creek in sufficient numbers to alarm the health authorities. The stream, ordinarily sluggish and odoriferous, is now, by reason of the protracted drought, practically a stagnant pool with green scum. The creek is little better than an open sewer under average circumstances, and now the water, resembling a body of greasy filth, is a serious menace to the public health.

Seriously Injured in a Sham Battle.

SCRANTON, Pa., Sept. 6.—During a sham battle at the reunion and encampment of the Susquehanna county veterans at Montrose William W. Hardy, of Glenwood, Pa., a brother of Colonel D. W. Hardy, was seriously injured by the premature discharge of a cannon. His face, arms and neck were severely burned, and he will lose the sight of at least one eye. The clothing of the upper portion of his body was entirely stripped from him.

What Will Do It?

MEDICAL writers claim that the successful remedy for nasal catarrh must be non-irritating, easy of application, and one that will reach the remote sores and ulcerated surfaces. The history of the efforts to treat catarrh is proof positive that only one remedy has completely met these conditions, and that is Ely's Cream Balm. This ~~safe and~~ pleasant remedy has mastered catarrh as nothing else has ever done, and both physicians and patients freely concede this fact. Our druggists keep it

Business of the Rockland and Livingston Manor Stations—Salt Water Day Excursion — Veterans Seeking Tax Exemption—Recovering Her Reason.

Correspondence ARGUS and MERCURY.

—Livingston Manor and Rockland are stations in the same township on the O. & W., and as they are only eight miles apart, they naturally become rivals to each other. The following statement shows at a glance the amount of railroad business done at the the two stations for the year ending June 30, 1894:

	Tickets	Frt For'd	Milk	Frt Rec'd
Rockland	$9,726 99	$19,250 28	$3,984 70	$7,496 24
Liv. Manor	6,286 45	13,469 77	6,371 94	9 116 47

—H. J. Lewis, a well known resident of East Branch, has been dangerously ill for a long time from kidney complaint, but is now greatly improved, and will soon be on his feet again.

—The O. & W. will give a grand excursion to Rockaway Beach, Thursday, Sept. 13, from Walton and all stations south. As the Delaware Valley Fair is in full blast at that time, it would have been better patronized had some other date been selected.

—A general effort has been made through this section of the State by the old soldiers to have the town assessors leave them off the tax list on the ground that homes bought with pension money are not taxable. Their demands have been denied in all cases that I have heard of, and the old veterans claim they will test their rights in the courts. There would seem to be litigation ahead over this matter that will prove expensive to all concerned.

—The friends of Mrs. Colin Campbell, of Colchester, have great hopes that she is on the highway to recovery, and will soon be discharged from the asylum in your city, where she has been undergoing treatment for some months past. It would perhaps be in place for me to say here that I have never talked with discharged patients from that institution who do not all speak well of it.

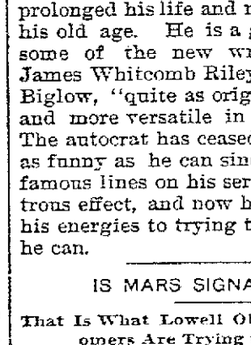
THE AUTOCRAT AT EIGHTY-SIX.

Dr. Holmes Is Still In Good Health and May Be a Centenarian.

Dr. Oliver Wendell Holmes, who recently celebrated his eighty-sixth birthday, has lived to see himself the hero of his quaint poem "The Last Leaf," for

The mossy marbles rest
On the lips that he has prest
In their bloom,
And the names he loved to hear
Have been carved for many a year
On the tomb.

Hawthorne, Longfellow, Emerson, Lowell, Whittier, Bryant, Tennyson—all his world famous contemporaries—are dust, but he lives on, the "The Last Leaf" on the great tree of literature that grew to giant proportions during the past half century. The genial autocrat, who is in some respects the greatest humorist the world ever produced, is in excellent health for one of his advanced age and is still active in mind as well as body. His friends believe he will live to be a centenarian, and, as he is in as good health now as he was 10 years ago, the belief may not prove unfounded.



DR. HOLMES.

The doctor is living at his beautiful country home at Beverly Farms and is still as great a lover of life as he was when his "Autocrat" and "Professor" were causing the smiles of the whole world. In 1889, on the seventieth birthday of Julia Ward Howe, Dr. Holmes said that to be 70 years young is sometimes far more cheerful and hopeful than to be 40 years old. He was then over 80 years young, and although he is now 16 years past the allotted threescore and ten he preserves the same cheerful, life prolonging philosophy. He takes a long walk each day when the weather is fair, and when it rains he ventures forth in a carriage. He believes his practice of spending as much time as possible in the open air has greatly prolonged his life and made comfortable his old age. He is a great admirer of some of the new writers and hails James Whitcomb Riley as a new Hosea Biglow, "quite as original as the latter and more versatile in many respects." The autocrat has ceased daring to write as funny as he can since he tried those famous lines on his servant, with disastrous effect, and now he is devoting all his energies to trying to live as long as he can.

IS MARS SIGNALING US?

That Is What Lowell Observatory Astronomers Are Trying to Find Out.

Mars and the earth are coming closer and closer together at this time, and if people on the war planet are signaling to us the astronomers of Lowell observatory at Flagstaff, A. T., may soon be aware of the fact. The observatory is 7,200 feet above the level of the sea and higher than any other large observatory in the world. It is in a dry belt of country, and as there are very few warm and cold currents in the atmosphere—the bugbears of the astronomer because they are fatal to accurate vision—the site is well adapted for accurate observations.

The observatory has only been in operation since May and was built for the particular work of viewing Mars when the planet gets in opposition to the earth. The full face of the planet will be illuminated about Oct. 20, and the red twinkler will then be only about 35,000,000 miles away. During the weeks when Mars is nearly in opposition he will be closely examined by the 18 inch, 12 inch and 6 inch telescopes of Lowell observatory. Mars is about one-sixth the size of the earth, and being farther distant from the sun is also much colder. The canals of Mars have already been carefully scrutinized by Observer Percival Lowell, who has also had the good fortune to see the Martian polar snows melt and flow northward, giving rise to the theory that they flood the planet's south temperate zone. At the polar caps several mountain peaks have been discerned.

The canals discovered by the Italian astronomer Schiaparelli are among the most interesting features of Mars. Their regularity is so pronounced that many students of the planet believe that they are the great waterways of the planet's people. They intersect at points, like the railroads of the earth, and it is believed that they may be used for transportation and irrigation. As Mars is older and more parched than the earth, the people, if people there be, would need all the irrigation they could get in order to sustain such life as exists on the earth. Observer Lowell has counted 12 of these canals and expects to make more interesting discoveries when the planet approaches nearer to the earth. During the Martian winter the canals are not conspicuous, but as summer approaches they swell in size as if filled by the melting snows of the polar regions.

The manuscript complete of the first Bible—Old Testament—was finished in the year 430 B. C. It was first translated into Saxon in 667 A. D. and into English in 1534.

DEMOCRATIC STATE CONVENTION.

The Democratic electors of the State of New York are requested to unite in sending three alternate delegates from each Assembly District to a State Convention to be held at Saratoga Springs on Thursday, Sept. 27th, 1894, at 12 o'clock noon for the purpose of placing in nomination candidates to be voted for at the ensuing election, and to transact such other business as may properly come before the convention.

One explanation of the increased Republican majority in Vermont is that the farmers thought they were hit hard by the removal of the duty on wool and that "the sheep voted."

The total assessed value of personal property in the State as returned by the State Assessors is $640,708,935. Orange county's assessment is $4,409,788; Rockland's, $978,715; Sullivan's, $141,887; Delaware's, $1,367,253, Ulster's, $2,806,835.

Chenango county Republicans, yesterday, instructed their delegates to the State Convention to vote and shout for Mayor Green, of Binghamton, so long as he had a chance of nomination and to then vote for Morton.

The Knights of Pythias Grand Lodge, yesterday, adopted an amendment to the constitution prohibiting the admission of saloon keepers, wholesale liquor dealers and professional gamblers to membership in the order.

Under the scheme of apportionment proposed by the Republican majority in the Constitutional Convention, the Republicans are over represented by 131,000 and the Democrats under-represented by 130,000. The Democrats might carry the State by 120,000 majority and Republicans would still control the Legislature.

One year in the penitentiary for Theodore Godfrey, forger, is too light a sentence to satisfy the demands of justice. The amount of money which he obtained by his crimes was about $300, and the harm he did society was infinitely greater than Minnie Leybolt, who was given four years for bigamy. could have done had she married a hundred men weak and vicious enough to take her as a "wife." Godfrey was only indicted on one of the many forged checks which he passed. He may be prosecuted on any or all the others when his year at Albany expires, and it is quite probable that the First National Bank, which suffered by his acts, will feel that it owes it to itself and to the community to see that he does not escape with an absurdly inadequate punishment for a series of very serious crimes.

Brooklyn's Board of Education, Tuesday night, tabled a resolution to appropriate $4,500 for carrying out the provisions of the State law in regard to the exclusion of unvaccinated children from the public schools. The debate on the resolution was long and covered a wide range, and particular attention was called to the conflicting provisions of the law requiring pupils to be vaccinated and the law requiring all children of school age to attend school. The action of the Brooklyn Board does not mean that the vaccination requirement will be ignored entirely, but that physicians' certificates of vaccination will be accepted instead of requiring an examination by physicians appointed by the Board. As soon, however, as the small-pox scare, from which Brooklyn has been suffering, dies out, the vaccination law will be allowed to fall into the desuetude, from which it is dragged only in times of panic born of an outbreak of small pox.

Tom Platt is likely to carry his point and secure the nomination of Mr. Morton, not because of his own strength or the popularity of his candidate, but because of lack of organization and unity of purpose on the part of those who are opposed to his dictatorial sway. Nothing practical can come of Fassett's scheme for each candidate for the gubernatorial nomination to pick up as many delegates as he can and to unite their votes in the convention in support of the candidate having the greatest strength. It will not be possible to combine all the heterogeneous interests, and in the final round up Morton would be likely to get more of the votes of the anti-Morton combination than the candidate on whom it was proposed to combine. Some of the more clear-headed politicians who are opposed to Platt recognize the necessity of uniting the anti-Platt faction on some strong man, in advance of the meeting of the convention, and they have cabled Chauncey M. Depew, asking him to enter the lists as a candidate against Morton.

Oratory and Wit.

"A curious thing about political oratory and wit is the side light I got upon one aspect of it years ago in Buffalo," Thus Mr. Cleveland is quoted by a listener. "One morning a quaint looking old chap came into my office and said that he had read in the newspapers that I was to speak at a mass meeting the following night and wanted to know if it were true. When I told him that it was so, he revealed to me a new method of gaining oratorical distinction. He wanted me to interrupt my speech at stated intervals with a remark that should be agreed upon between us. To this interjection I was to retort wittily, and thus, as the old fellow pointed out, I would acquire a reputation as a witty speaker.

"My first impression was that he was amusing himself at my expense, but he responded to me several times I could reply to wittily and wanted me to pay him roundly for helping me to a reputation. But I told him I was indifferent to that kind of fame and he went away disappointed. Not very long after that I was seated on a stage listening to a speaker, when who should arise in the audience but my quaint visitor and bawl out one of the very things he wanted me to pay him for interrupting me with. The orator answered him with the same retort that I was offered the privilege of making, and the audience exploded into laughter and I heartily joined in, but my amusement had not the same foundation, I fancy, as that of the rest of the laughers. And during the rest of the evening the old fellow made no other interruption from different parts of the house, and the retort was one of the same manufactured sort I have a little skepticism now on the subject of wit's return."—Cincinnati Commercial.

Rainfall During August

From the Warwick Dispatch.

Our local representative of the State weather observers, John W. Sly, reports a rainfall of only 83-100 of an inch during August. Last year during the same month the rainfall was 7¼ inches.

THE POSTS REMOVED.

Orchard Street No Longer to Be Used as a Public Hitching Place.

For many years a row of hitching posts has stood in front of the First Presbyterian Church on Orchard street, to which members of the congregation from out of town have tied their horses, Sundays, while during the week they have been used by farmers and others temporarily in town. When the street was paved the contractors informed the trustees of the church that unless they removed the posts, the iron shod horses would soon destroy the pavement, and accordingly all the posts were taken out.

The trustees have arranged for the use of the Bell House sheds by the members of the congregation who reside in the country, and who drive in to attend the services on Sundays and on Wednesday evenings, but the general public will have to look elsewhere for places to tie their horses.

REDUCING EXPENSES.

The Erie to Lay Off One Brakeman of Each Through Freight Crew.

The Erie Company finding it necessary to reduce its running expenses on account of light through freight traffic has hit upon a plan, which it is thought will give better satisfaction than to make a general reduction of wages.

In effect it is the laying off of one man in each crew on through freight trains. The newest brakeman in each crew will be taken off and placed on the extra list.

The order requires that the crews on through trains of 55 cars or less shall consist of a conductor, flagman and three brakemen; on trains of over 55 cars one additional brakeman will be allowed. There will be no change in the crews of local freight trains.

The order goes into effect September 16th.

The Engineers' Picnic.

It is estimated that about one thousand Port Jervisites attended the Engineers' picnic at Midway Park, yesterday. The special which reached here at 7 30 o'clock brought a goodly number of the "couldn't-get-away-befores." Many Middletowners went to the Park in the evening. All had a merry time, unmarred by accident or unpleasant incident of any kind.

LIVE LOCAL TOPICS.

—The New York State Fair opened, to-day, at Syracuse.

—Get your supper at the Old Ladies' Home, this evening.

—Electric railroad ticket books are now on sale at O. and W. ticket office, Main street depot.

—It is estimated that there are at least 4 500 dogs in Paterson, but thus far only 2,926 have been registered.

—Residents of Wawayanda say that twice as much rain fell in this city this morning as in their town.

—For twenty-five cents you can get a fine supper any time, this evening, from 5 to 8 o'clock, at the Old Ladies' Home.

—A white Angora cat, in charge of an O. and W. passenger, attracted considerable attention at the Wickham avenue depot this morning.

—A horse belonging to a Middletown livery, died at the Demerest House stables, on Saturday last.—Warwick Dispatch.

—Electric block signal boxes have been placed on North street, near Depot street and Wickham avenue to regulate the running of cars on that block.

—There will be a meeting of the Columbus Club at the hall at 8 o'clock, this evening. Every member is expected to be present.

—The Lehigh and Hudson runs a special train for the accommodation of peach growers along its line, who are now making large shipments every day.

—Forepaugh,s circus, which shows in Port Jervis to-day, will pass through this city to-night on its way to Ellenville, where it is billed for two performances, to-morrow.

—The monthly meeting of the Young Ladies' Auxiliary of Thrall Hospital will be held to-morrow (Friday) afternoon at the usual time and place.

—The employes of the Binghamton State Hospital held a field day, Tuesday. In some of the events patients participated. The contests were interesting and were witnessed by over 2,000 people.

—Newburgh's Common Council has set apart the south side of Broadway, between Liberty and Dubois streets, as a market place, where fish, produce, etc., may be sold from wagons on Wednesdays and Thursdays.

—A party of Downsville men, while spearing eels in the East Branch, Monday night, speared a German carp that weighed fifteen pounds. It was the largest fish ever captured in the stream.

—A car loaded with horses, the property of Commodore Elbridge T. Gerry, was attached to O. and W. train No 1, this morning. The horses were being sent to Mr. Gerry's summer home at Delhi, N. Y.

—Miss Lester's orchestra numbers ten musicians this season, and it is the best of any traveling with a theatrical organization. Her band numbers fourteen pieces, and their concerts are a prominent feature. At the Casino all next week.

—Grasshoppers were so numerous in some parts of Otsego county that when the oats, in the bundles of which they gathered, were carted to the barns, the hoppers smothered in the barns emitted a fearful stench. One farmer, after a day's threshing, found three bushels of dead grasshoppers in the screenings.

—This morning's gentle rainfall laid the dust and washed the accumulated dirt of weeks from leaves and trees. "For this relief much thanks," but a three days steady down-pour is needed to get the earth in shape after so many weeks of drouth.

More Cars Coming.

Six more of the vestibuled cars for the Traction company are now on the way, and are expected to arrive at any hour.

PERSONAL.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. Edson Fuller, of Port Jervis, were in town, yesterday.

—Mr. Jas. Quinlan, the East Main Street barber, returned yesterday from a ten days' trip to Roslyn, L. I, and Hamburg N. J.

—Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Cocks, of Cornwall, who have been visiting relatives and friends in town, will return home, this evening.

—Mr. James E. Campbell, of the South Side store, returned last night from a few days' visit at Asbury Park.

—Miss Ella Shaver and Misses Mary A. and Linda Elwood, are visiting friends in Middletown, Orange Co., this week.—Downsville News.

—Mr. W. H. Giles arrived home from England, last night. He came over on the Aurania, which landed its passengers in New York, yesterday.

—Rev. Father Lenes returned, this morning, from Allegany, N. Y., whither he went on Tuesday to enter as students in St. Bonaventure's College, Michael J. F. McMickle and John Joseph Kilbride, who recently graduated from St. Joseph's Parochial School.

THE CLAM BAKE.

The Rain Interferes, but There'll be a Bake All the Same, This Evening—Chester Knights on Hand.

The members of Lancelot Lodge, K. of P. and their friends who had hoped to eat clams with them, to-day, were greatly disappointed when they awoke, this morning, to find it raining and still more so when the lowering clouds refused to break away in time for the preparation to begin for a clam bake at Midway at noon. But if these were disappointed, how about Mr. Gunther who had laid in a big stock of chickens and blue fish, and had them all cleaned and ready for the bake?

The fish and chickens were brought to town and placed in the refrigerator, and the clams, corn, potatoes, tomatoes, etc., stored in the pavilion.

When, during the forenoon, the clouds began to roll by, the committee decided to have a bake at 7 o'clock, this evening, and the decision was passed around and bulletined at the newspaper offices. Then preparations for the bake were resumed and people began to flock to Midway.

While the rain disappointed people, this morning, it will add much to their pleasure this afternoon and evening by laying the dust in the walks about the park, to say nothing of the great good it did in reviving parched vegetation.

The bake this evening will be served promptly at 7 o'clock. We are assured it will be a good one.

The members of the Chester Lodge, K. of P., and their wives, sisters and sweethearts drove to this city, reaching here at 12:30. They were headed by the Chester Band, which played several lively airs as the party rode through the streets. Disappointed in the noon bake, the Chesterites took dinner at hotels and restaurants in the city and then betook themselves to the Park where, it is needless to say, they have passed the afternoon very pleasantly.

THE CANTON BLOCKS.

The Orchard Street Paving Unsatisfactory, and Property Owners Will Not Pay for It.

When the officers of the First Presbyterian Church and the Trust Company petitioned the Common Council to pave Orchard street from North to the crossing in front of the church with asphalt or Mack brick blocks, the Council ordered the paving done with Canton brick blocks.

The pavement has been in use but a few days, but already gives evidence that it is not what it should be.

The Street Committee inspected it, this morning, and found that in many places the bricks had been broken by wagon wheels and horses' hoofs, and large portions of the bricks could be dug out with the toe of one's boot.

The petitioners say that they asked for asphalt or Mack blocks, and will not pay for the pavement as it is laid.

The remainder of the street as far as the east line of F. B. Denton's premises is laid with Mack blocks, but there has not been sufficient time to test them.

If the Canton blocks laid on Orchard street are a fair sample, then Middletown has no use for that kind of brick.

Thus far no complaint has been made of the Mack blocks on North street, which have been in use much longer than the Orchard street pavement.

AN ELECTRIC ROAD TO WALDEN

A Company to be Organized This Week for Its Construction.

The Newburgh parties who recently disposed of their interest in the Newburgh and Orange Lake Electric roads, will unite with the parties now owning those roads in organizing a company to build an electric road to Walden, and ultimately to Montgomery and Wallkill. The company will be incorporated this week, and the road to Walden may be built this fall.

OBITUARY.

Hon. Thomas Fulton.

Hon. Thomas Fulton died at his home in Washingtonville, Monday night, aged 82 years. He was a man of marked intelligence, and enjoyed the highest respect of those who knew him.

He lived for many years during his early life in Bethlehem, after in Newburgh, and later on a farm near Walden. He visited England and other parts of Europe, and was an interesting conversationalist. He was also prominent in politics, having in 1853 been a member of Assembly from the First District, at which time Orange county had three members. In 1857 he was nominated by the Democrats for the Assembly, and made an unusually strong run, being beaten by Hon. John C. Adams by 259 majority. Mr. Fulton was for a number of years the owner of the mills now owned by Board & Brewster, and did a large business.

A few years ago he retired from business, transferring all his interest to his son Thomas. His health has been failing the past two years, but he was confined to his bed only a few days. He leaves one son, Thomas, and three daughters, all of whom reside at Washingtonville.

THE ELECTRIC RAILWAY.

The Asylum Route Decided Upon—It Will be Through West Main, Bonnell and Cornelia Streets and Monhagen Avenue—Work Commenced at Noon To-day.

For some time past there has been much interest felt in the matter of a continuation of the route of the electric road from the present terminus at Lake Avenue to the State Hospital. Everybody wants the road to go through to the Hospital, for that is one of Middletown's greatest attractions. All strangers coming to town want to see this institution, and heretofore have been compelled to walk, hire a carriage or go in a 'bus. Besides, a large percentage of our population have a deep interest in the base ball games, and hundreds would go who do not now attend if the cars were running there.

As to the route, two have been proposed, one by way of Lake avenue to Summit avenue and Columbia Park and the other through West Main street to Bonnell, thence to Chestnut street and over the Erie tracks to Cornelia street, to Monhagen avenue and to the Hospital.

Various private interests were concerned and flattering overtures were made to the company, but believing that the latter route would best serve the interests of the public at large, the officers of the company as they have done in laying out their lines of road therefore have decided to adopt it.

The company already has the franchise and consents of property owners for all the route except on Bonnell street—less than one block, and doubtless there will be no difficulty in obtaining both on this street.

At noon, to-day, a large force of men began the work of laying the track on the route above named, while another gang of men began setting the poles, and if no serious obstacles are encountered, cars will be running to the State Hospital before many days.

THE COUNTY COURT.

The Prisoners Sentenced by Judge Beattie.

From the Newburgh Journal.

The session of County Court to-day was brief. The only business was the sentencing of the prisoners. Judge Beattie's sentences were as follows:

Winfield S. Force, aged 21, born in Pennsylvania, who pleaded guilty of bigamy was sentenced to the Elmira Reformatory.

Richard Lloyd and Thomas Kerwin, the Newburgh thieves, were sent to the Elmira Reformatory.

George Latesr, aged 22, residence Greenville, was sent to Sing Sing for 3 years. 6 months.

Christopher Boyce was sentenced to spend a year at the penitentiary and pay a fine of $250. The fine will be remitted upon good behavior.

Minnie Merrit, known as Minnie Leybolt, who pleaded guilty to bigamy, was sent to the Auburn prison for four years.

Theodore Godfrey, forger, Daniel Malloy and Edward Sankerson, convicted of theft, were sent to the Albany penitentiary for one year.

SETTLED OUT OF COURT.

Two Cases of Alleged Assault Which Did Not Come to Trial.

Constable Cleveland, of Central Valley, came to this city, yesterday afternoon, in search of a young man, who is alleged to have committed an assault upon one William Simpson, of that village, on July 4. The young man was found in the employment of the Middletown-Goshen Traction Company. He accompanied the officer to Central Valley, settled the matter by paying the costs and returned to his work last night.

Patrick Barrett, yesterday, withdrew the charge of assault in the third degree which he made, a week ago, against a well-known railroad man. The defendant paid the costs.

The 24th Company Veterans' Association.

A meeting of the honorably discharged members of the 24th Separate Company will be held at Knapp & Merritt's office, Monday evening, at 7:30. The committee on by-laws for the proposed veterans' association will make its report.

OLD LADIES' HOME FAIR.

An Elegant Display of Fancy Goods and Hand Painted China.

The annual fair of the Old Ladies' Home Society is in progress at the Home on South street this afternoon.

At no fair in the society's history has there been as fine a display of fancy goods.

In the north parlor there are three fancy goods tables and a china table.

The China is especially interesting as it is all hand painted, the work of Miss Harriet Phillips, of Goshen. A number of the pieces are of Irish Belleek ware, something very rare in this country. The painting is very artistic.

One of the fancy good table is from the town of Blooming Grove and is in charge of Mrs. Marsh.

Another is a Goshen table in charge of Miss Grier and Miss Phillips.

The third table represents the combined contributions of Hamptonburgh and Middletown ladies, and is in charge of Mrs. Uptegrove and Mrs. Morgan.

In the south parlor is the apron table, containing a large variety of domestic articles.

In this room is also the candy table, filled with home-made candies. It is presided over by Miss Edith Dunning, assisted by the Misses Wiggins, Miss Nettie Beakes and Miss Mamie O'Neill.

There is a home made cake sale, which will be continued through this evening.

Misses Emma Wolf and Cecil Dolson have charge of the sale of lemonade.

Miss Grace Crane is chairman of the committee on cream and cake.

The decorations, which are elaborate and beautiful, reflect the skill and good taste of Miss Nellie B. Royce, Miss Hayes and the Misses Taylor.

Mrs. Webster is chairman of the committee on lunch and supper, and she is ably assisted by Mrs. H. S. Conkling, Misses Laura Wickham, Lizzie Royce and Irene Hathaway.

Miss Irene Hathaway is chairman of the executive committee in charge of the fair, and displays remarkable executive ability.

This evening an excellent supper will be served from 6 to 8 o'clock, and all who can should patronize the ladies.

The Wheelmen's Meeting.

The monthly meeting of the Middletown wheelmen was held last evening. No business of public importance was transacted. Tickets for the coming meet were distributed among members present for sale to their friends, and the remainder were turned over to the Secretary, Mr. Ira Moore, for distribution and sale.

Probably the Last of the Season.

The $1 excursion on the Erie, Sunday, Sept. 9th, will probably be the last one of the season. Every one should take advantage of the opportunity to enjoy the day in New York for such a small sum. Special train leaves James street 7:54 and Main street 7:55 a. m., returning leaves New York at 7:40 p. m. Tickets will be honored only on the special train in both directions.

Ladies to Give a Dance.

Twenty-five young ladies have tendered their friends of the other sex an informal dance, to be held at the Assembly Rooms, to-morrow evening, Sept. 7th. An admission fee of twenty-five cents will be charged to spectators.

Real Estate Notes.

—P. F. Kaufman has sold for E. H Elmore, of Parksville, a fine building lot on Broad street, to Clarence E. Decker, of this city.

A VETERAN'S VERDICT.

The War is Over. A Well-known Soldier, Correspondent and Journalist Makes a Disclosure.

Indiana contributed her thousands of brave soldiers to the war, and no state bears a better record in that respect than it does. In literature it is rapidly acquiring an enviable place. In war and literature Solomon Yewell, well known as a writer as "Sol," has won an honorable position. During the late war he was a member of Co. M, 2d. N. Y. Cavalry and of the 13th Indiana Infantry Volunteers. Regarding an important circumstance he writes as follows:

"Several of us old veterans here are using Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine, Heart Cure and Nerve and Liver Pills, all of them giving splendid satisfaction. In fact, we have never used remedies that compare with them. Of the Pills we must say they are the best combination of the qualities required in a preparation of their nature we have ever known. We have none but words of praise for them. They are the outgrowth of a new principle in medicine, and tone up the system wonderfully. We say to all, try these remedies." —Solomon Yewell, Marion, Ind., Dec. 5, 1892.

These remedies are sold by all druggists on a positive guarantee, or sent direct by the Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind., on receipt of price, $1 per bottle, six bottles $5, express prepaid. They positively contain neither opiates nor dangerous drugs.

LET NO GUILTY MAN ESCAPE.

A Strong Presentation of the Case Made Against the Carnegie Steel Company.

It is rather a general belief in this country that if a man commits a crime he should be punished, and also that th punishment should fit the crime, or, in other words, be commensurate with it.

Moreover, we declare that some crimes are much more criminal than others because their consequences are more far-reaching. If a fellow steals a loaf of bread or a pocketbook, that is one thing, but if he does something which endangers the good name or possibly the safety of our federal government that is a very different thing, and his treatment should be different. He is worthy of nothing better than to be despised by every self respecting man in the land and should spend a goodly portion of his remaining days in that close seclusion in which he will repent of his sins because that is the only thing which will enable him to pass his time comfortably.

Now, here are the huge steel works of which Mr. Carnegie is at the head. It has been swindling the government for months and has done it deliberately and with malice aforethought. Its guilt has been established beyond a peradventure, and the subcommittee of the naval house committee has caught it, as it were, red handed. There is no room to doubt that this company has been palming off on the naval department certain armor plates which are unfit to be used on our war vessels and getting for them the price of the very best plates that can be manufactured.

Mr. Cleveland hesitated to believe that charge when it was first made and treated the whole matter with undue leniency of judgment. Congress also hesitated, for it was positively incredible that a firm made up of reputable gentlemen and doing work for a country which they have loudly protested to love and honor could by any possibility endanger that country's welfare by the delivery of defective plates. But the facts were so broadly patent and backed by such good authority that the subject had to be investigated. Listen, therefore, to the verdict which these careful experts have rendered. It reads as follows:

"The servants of the Carnegie Steel company, whether with or without the knowledge of the company, to increase their gains deliberately continued for many months to commit acts whose natural and probable consequence would be the sacrifice of the lives of our seamen in time of war, and with them perhaps the dearest interests of the nation."

Isn't that a terrible arraignment? It stamps every man engaged in this infamous proceeding as a traitor. He has sold his country to the enemy for a few paltry dollars. He has crippled our defenses in time of war and done what he could, and done it for hard cash, to make our defeat possible in a naval conflict. He has endangered the lives of our brave seamen and given an enemy such an advantage over us that no one can reckon the result.

And where is Mr. Carnegie all this while? He has been talking eloquently about his love for his adopted country for many years. And well he may love her, for he has made millions by the opportunities which no other land on the planet could offer in equal abundance. But where is he? If he is not personally to blame, if he is not in collusion with the men engaged in these cowardly misdeeds, why does he not come boldly to the front and do what he can to remedy the rascality of his subordinates? There is something mysterious and suspicious in the fact that he keeps himself well in the background.

These are the facts. They are stern, and they are hard. Now, in such a matter there should be no mercy. The men who are guilty should be found, their guilt should be fastened upon them by due process of law, and then they should be dealt with as every patriotic community deals with traitors.—New York Evening Telegram.

FRANCE AND GERMANY.

There Are Surface Indications That These Countries May Bury the Hatchet.

The latest fad among certain classes of volatile Frenchmen is the most amazing that can be conceived. They have been publicly expressing friendly sentiments toward the people on the other side of the Rhine. Stories have reached Paris of German and French officers and men drinking together in a friendly way, each carefully on his own side of the frontier, but shaking hands and passing compliments across the fatal line. Two or three such incidents have been reported before since Sedan, but always aroused intense indignation and demands for a court martial among the French people. Now they are received with open approval in many circles, and even some astonishing talk about burying the hatchet has been indulged in, yet the rash peacemakers have kept a whole skin.

Emperor William's sincere expressions of sympathy at the death of President Carnot and his action in releasing the French spies are the direct cause of this almost incredible change of sentiment. It is now announced, with what truth it is yet impossible to say, that this year's celebration of the anniversary of Sedan will be the last. This report has greatly surprised and pleased the French people, and there are many signs that they sincerely appreciate the magnanimity of the German emperor.—Paris Letter.

A Paradox of Civilization.

One of the paradoxes of modern civilization, says the New York Telegram, is shown forth in the fact the defense of New York harbor is deemed as important as its improvement. While the government with one hand is removing obstructions, with the other it is obliged to erect them. Here is a nugget for the

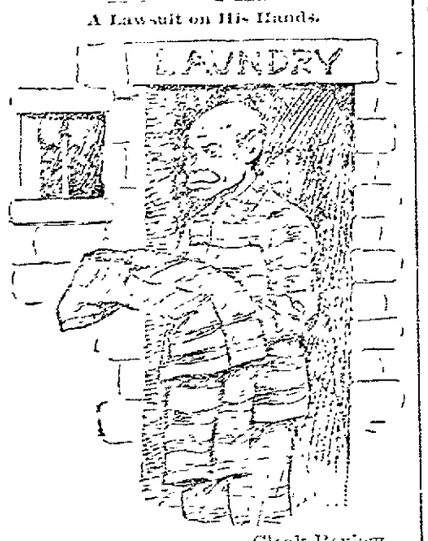
A Lawsuit on His Hands.



—Cloak Review.

A Fatal Objection.

Two maiden ladies walked into a Broadway furniture store the other day and asked to be shown some chamber suits of reasonable price.

They were tall, thin, prim and sisters.

The salesman showed them an extensive line of bedroom furniture.

At last a suit was reached that pleased one of the women.

"What's the price of this?" she asked.

"Twenty-eight dollars," replied the salesman. "Seven pieces in the set. Made of thoroughly seasoned wood. Everything is first class about it. You couldn't buy one like it anywhere else in the city for less than $35. It's a bargain."

"It does seem reasonable, Sarah," said the woman who had asked the price of the set.

Sarah walked around the bedstead, scrutinized it carefully from several points of view and finally shook her head.

"It doesn't quite suit me," she said.

They left the store.

When they had reached the sidewalk, Mary said:

"Sarah, I think we made a mistake in not taking that suit."

"Do you really believe that?" asked Sarah.

"Yes, it was a bargain."

"But that bedstead, Mary?"

"Well, what about it? I didn't see anything the matter with the bedstead. It was stylish looking and well made as far as I could see."

"Yes, yes, but it was so low."

"Well what of that? For my part I like a low bed."

"But, my dear sister," said Sarah reproachfully, "that bedstead was altogether too low. It would be utterly impossible for a man to crawl under it."—New York Herald.

A Brave Man's Weakness.

He was all that's brave and manly. He had emulated Stanley and had traversed wilds where white man ne'er had set his foot before. He just gloried in a battle, for he loved to hear the rattle of the bullets and the sounding of the cannon's deadly roar.

He would fight a hundred people. He would climb the highest steeple, though he knew by that rash act he was courting certain death. He would face a raging tiger, he would swim the turbid Niger, and he'd walk up to a cannon's mouth and never bate his breath.

There was nothing that could scare him. He had ventured in the harem of the wildest, fiercest pasha that e'er lived on Turkey's coast. In a graveyard he had wandered late at night, and there had pondered if it would be his fortune just to see a real ghost.

He was brave beyond all question. There had never been a suggestion that the stories of his boldness were not made up of the truth; but, alas! his courage failed him when a rotten molar ailed him, for he didn't have the nerve to let a dentist pull his tooth.—New York World

Hard on the Objects.

The pages of amusing literature are stocked with the sayings of honest and untactful people. The following incidents have, moreover, the merit of being true: A lady who had studied an elementary treatise on astrology one day took it upon her to "cast the horoscope" of a boarding house acquaintance. "Let me see," she began after taking down the day of the "subject's" birth, "you are in Aries. Aries is intellect. Why is," she suddenly exclaimed, looking up as the full force of the definition struck her, "there must be some mistake. You can't be in Aries."

Another innocently frank person was admiring the baby grandson of a famous man. "Now," said she encouragingly to the parents of the child, "this boy will be a genius. It is perfectly safe to expect it, for, you know, genius always skips one generation."—New York Clipper.

Evolution of the Folding Bed.

Mrs. de Flat—Have you anything new in folding beds?

Dealer—Only this, madam, and it really is quite a success. On arising in the morning you touch a spring, and it turns into a washstand and bathtub. After your bath you touch another spring, and it becomes a dressing case, with a French plate mirror. If you breakfast in your room, a slight pressure will transform it into an extension table. After breakfast you press these three buttons at once, and you have an upright piano. That's all it will do, except that when you die it can be changed into a rosewood coffin.—New York Weekly.

STATE OF NEW YORK,
Office of the Secretary of State,

ALBANY, AUGUST 4, 1894.

Pursuant to the provisions of section seven chapter six hundred and eighty, Laws of eighteen hundred and ninety-two, notice is hereby given that the following proposed amendment to article six of the Constitution of the state of New York will be submitted to the people of the said State, for the purpose of voting thereon at the next general election in this State, to be held on the sixth day of November, eighteen hundred and ninety-four.

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION.

Proposing amendment to articles six of the Constitution of this State in relation to County Judges and Court of Sessions in the county of Kings.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly do enact as follows:

Whereas, At the last session of the Legislature, the following amendment was proposed in the Senate and Assembly, viz:

Resolved (if the Senate concur). That article six of the Constitution of this state be amended by addi g thereto the following section:

"§ 32. There shall be in the county of Kings two county judges, each of whose term of office shall be six years. The county judge in office at the adoption of this amendment shall hold office until the expiration of the term for which he was elected. The additional county judge shall be elected at the general election held next after the adoption of this amendment, and his term of office shall begin on the first day of January thereafter. When the official term of any county judge of said county will expire by the effluxion of time or the disability of age, the successor of such judge shall be chosen at the preceding general election. Vacancies otherwise occuring in said offices shall be filled in the same manner as vacancies in the Supreme court. The salary of said county judge shall be as now established by law for county judge in said county. Their powers and jurisdiction shall be co-ordinate and co-equal. One or more parts of the county court may be held in said county. The court of sessions in the county of Kings is continued with the powers and jurisdiction it now possesses, and with such additional powers and jurisdiction as may be conferred by the Legislature; it must be held by a county judge of the county, and may hold one or more parts."

And whereas, The said proposed amendment was agreed to by a majority of the members elected to each of the two houses of the said Legislature, entered on the journals, with the yeas and nays taken thereon, and referred to the Legislature to be chosen at the then next general election of senators.

And, whereas, Such election has taken place and said proposed amendment was duly published for three months previous to the time of making such choice, in pursuance of the provisions of article thirteen of the Constitution; therefore,

Resolved (if the Senate concur). That the Assembly do agree to the proposed amendment.

STATE OF NEW YORK,
IN SENATE, April 26, 1894.

This bill was read the third time and passed, a majority of all the Senators elected voting in favor thereof, three-fifths being present.

By order of the Senate,
WILLIAM F SHEEHAN, President.

STATE OF NEW YORK,
IN ASSEMBLY, April 17, 1894.

This bill was read the third time and passed, a majority of all the members elected to the Assembly voting in favor thereof, three-fifths being present.

By order of the Assembly,
GEORGE R. MALBY, Speaker.

SHOTS HERE AND THERE.

AN "ARGUS" MAN OFF DUTY AIMS AT SEVERAL SUBJECTS.

A Humorous and Popular Undertaker—Crows and Hawks Wanted for the County Fair—Sunday Excursions at Midway Park Would Ruin That Resort and Not Help Middletown.

The Paterson News announces that "Ed. J. MacDonald, the popular undertaker and well known humorist," will take part in an entertainment in that city. I do not remember having ever seen a more incongruous combination of ideas and adjectives. We do not usually associate undertakers with humor and a "popular undertaker" is an impossibility until death is more popular than it ever has been or is likely to become.

D. Lincoln Orr, superintendent of the poultry department of the Orange county fair, in his anxiety to have a big lot of birds in the poultry building, appeals to the "poultry fraternity,"—whatever or whoever that may be,—to "send everything you have in the shape of a fowl, pigeon, pet, etc." He concludes his appeal with a special request that those who have crows, hawks and "sich" will please send them in. Evidently Mr. Orr has ideas of his own as to how an agricultural fair should be run in order to "encourage agriculture."

Ever since Midway Park was opened to the public there has been a good deal of talk in favor of sidetracking the crowds that now go to Shohola Glen from New York and carrying them to Midway on the electric cars, and if we are correctly informed efforts are already being made to secure Sunday excursions on both roads from New York, although we are not aware that the Traction Company or Mr. Gunther has any part in the matter.

Surely Middletown people do not know what they are doing when they advocate the running of New York excursions to Midway. As the park stands to-day it is popular with Middletowners and people in surrounding places because it is not, like Shohola Glen, the resort of the rabble of a great city, but rather a beautiful, quiet and orderly retreat where local societies, churches, Sunday schools and families may enjoy a day's outing without coming in contact with gamblers, toughs and the rough characters generally that make up New York's Sunday excursions. To-day men do not hesitate to let their wives and children take a car to Midway and spend the day there unattended, knowing full well that under the excellent regulations established by Mr. Gunther and the efficient police protection furnished, no disorderly conduct will be permitted and hence the place will have no attractions for the rough element of society.

Once let the crowds that now go to Shohola and other similar resorts from New York, Brooklyn and Jersey City get possession, and it will no longer be the beautiful Midway, the pride of Middletown, but a resort for an entirely different class of people from those for whom Middletowners supposed it was designed, and for this reason have given it their hearty support and patronage.

Aside from the deplorable results of turning over Midway to a New York rabble, if any one supposes it would be an advantage to our city to turn loose in our streets on a Sunday from twenty to thirty carloads of these people they are certainly mistaken.

But if it were possible that any good could come to Middletown by their presence, once the road is completed to Goshen the Erie would doubtless land its excursions there and the O. and W. would, in order to compete with the Erie in the matter of distance, stop its trains at Mechanictown or establish a station at the bridge over which the electric cars now run and Middletown would be left out,—all of which would be a good thing for Middletown;—but our park would be ruined all the same.

We believe it will be to the interests of the Traction Company and of Mr. Gunther to pursue the policy they have inaugurated, and to refuse to entertain propositions for New York excursions and especially Sunday excursions. In the pursuance of such a policy they will continue to have the good will and patronage of Middletown, and of Goshen, too, when that village is connected with the park by the electric road. We have a good thing and let's keep it.

A Grand Feature

Of Hood's Sarsaparilla is that while it purifies the blood and sends it coursing through the veins full of richness and health, it also imparts new life and vigor to every function of the body. Hence the expression so often heard, "Hood's Sarsaparilla is a new person of me." It overcomes that tired feeling so common now.

Hood's Pills are purely vegetable, perfectly harmless, always reliable and beneficial.

YOUNG LADIES AS MINSTRELS.

To Give an Entertainment for the Benefit of Thrall Hospital.

The Board of Managers of Thrall Hospital are making arrangements for a fair in aid of the hospital to be held at the Casino, October 23 to 26.

One of the attractions will be a minstrel entertainment given by a number of young ladies of this city and Goshen.

A preliminary meeting was held, last evening, and Mr. Chas. F. Roper has kindly volunteered to take charge of the entertainment.

A meeting of the young ladies will be called for Friday evening of this week and on Tuesday evening of next week the first rehearsal will be held. There is a great deal of enthusiasm over the affair and the success of the minstrel performance is assured.

The great success which has attended performances of this kind has encouraged the promoters of the entertainment and it is a well known fact that if vocal and terpsichorean talent are the necessary requisites to success, Middletown will not have to take a back seat.

MONTGOMERY.

The Circus—Additions to Churches—Opening of the Schools—The New Lecture Room—No Water to Run Mills—Labor Day Ball Game.

Correspondence ARGUS and MERCURY.

—Rev. F. S. Schenk, former pastor of the Brick Church, will occupy the pulpit in his old church next Sunday.

—Many from here attended the Ringling Brothers' circus at Walden, on Saturday, and pronounced it the best circus that has been seen in this section in years.

—Communion was administered in both the Reformed and Presbyterian churches on Sunday. Three new members, all by profession of faith, joined the former church.

—Mrs. John Cox spent last week visiting relatives in New York city.

—William McNeal, Jr., drove to Englewood, N. J., Sunday, to visit his sister.

—Mr. and Mrs. James Borthic became the proud parents of a boy on Friday.

—Miss Essie Dusenberry returned Friday, to her home in Jersey City, after a sojourn of three weeks with her aunt, Mrs. E. H. Miller, at her home on Union street.

—Our schools opened Tuesday.

—The frame of the new lecture room is nearly constructed. It will be a magnificent structure, with a seating capacity nearly as large as that of Academy Hall.

—The paper mill cannot start up owing to lack of water.

—Great interest was manifested in the W. C. T. U. convention. It was largely attended.

—The Montgomery base ball club defeated the Walden team here on Labor Day, to the tune of 14 to 4. The game was well played, and the bitter pill was swallowed with much pain by our down-the-river opponents. Montgomery has won two out of three from the Waldens this summer.

One of the Cochecton "Bank" Swindlers Indicted for Forgery.

Amorose Davenport was indicted by the New York Grand Jury, yesterday, on the technical charge of forgery for putting in circulation checks and drafts on the fictitious firm of Osmun & Co., who purported to be running a private bank at Cochecton, Sullivan county. The Union Square Bank, New York, and Brooklyn and Newark banks were the principal sufferers by the operations of these swindling "bankers."

District Convention of Masonic Lodges

District Deputy Grand Master Henry Krenrich announces that the annual convention of the Masonic lodges of this, the Tenth Masonic District, for the exemplification of the standard work of the order will be held in the rooms of Hoffman Lodge, this city, Sept. 24 and 25. The convention will be under the direction of Grand Lecturer George H. Raymond.

Variety the Spice of Life.

There is nothing benefits mankind so much as a change, even if it's only a change of linen. But what we mean to convey is that too much of any one thing becomes monotonous. The clerk, tied for hours at his desk, seeks relaxation on his flying wheel; the policeman, on his feet for hours (?), finds relaxation in an easy chair by his, or any friend's fireside; a man badgered by a shrew of a wife seeks relaxation by tilting a can over his head, and as the beer disappears, he gazes with consolation at his reflected countenance at the bottom of the growler. Even at the theatre how many plays are monotonous when all on the one theme, how a bit of sentiment is relieved by a hearty laugh, a merry dance or comic song. And if "variety is the spice of life," it reaches perfection in the great comedy, "She Couldn't Marry Three."

Fine Plums

Mr. W. H. Tator has a plum tree on his premises on Bonnell street, of which he is justly proud. It is of the Jefferson variety and is literally loaded, one branch, two feet long, having upon it forty-five large and fine plums.

THE ULSTER COUNTY REFORMATORY.

Plans for Its Construction Adopted by the State Board of Charities.

The State Board of Charities at its meeting in Albany, yesterday, adopted the plans of Architect John R. Thomas, of New York, for the Eastern New York reformatory to be erected at Napanoch, Ulster county.

The main structure will consist of a centre, or guard-room building and, connected therewith, a cell wing on each side, with an administration building and superintendent's residence in front. The principal floor of the central building will contain the guard-room, and on the floor above the assembly hall; the south wing will have 224 cells, 7 by 9 feet; the north wing 272 cells, 5 feet 8 inches by 9 feet, making a total of 496 cells.

At the rear of the central building and the two cell wings will be other buildings, placed to form a quadrangle. These buildings will be a domestic building, three stories high, for cooking and dining purposes; a physical culture building; a school building; one-story building for school and trade school purposes; a two-story workshop; a foundry; a hospital and cottages.

The cost is estimated at $543,000. The work of construction will begin in October.

SALT WATER DAY EXCURSION.

A Cheap Trip to Rockaway Beach via the O. and W. and Gen. Slocum.

One of the most delightful trips of the season is that announced by the Ontario and Western railway, for Sept. 13th, on which date it will run its annual salt water day excursion from Walton and all stations south to Rockaway Beach. A special train will convey the excursionists to and from Cornwall, from which point they will be carried direct to the beach on the large and commodious steamer General Slocum. A very cheap rate of fare is named, affording our people a rare opportunity of visiting the sea shore.

WURTSBORO.

Good Game of Ball—Canal Navigation Suspended—Other Notes.

Correspondence ARGUS and MERCURY.

—A fine game of ball was played here, Saturday, between city boarders and the home nine. A feature of the game was the work of the Wurtsboro battery, McCune and O'Connor. The score, New York, 5; Wurtsboro, 12.

—Boating on the D. and H. Canal was declared closed, Tuesday,—not permanently, however, but until sufficient rain falls to make it possible to resume business.

—Frank M. Kniffin, of the Newburgh News, and Jesse Carr, of Chapman's pharmacy, Newburgh, who have been visiting here, have returned to that city.

—A social hop was held at Dorrance Hall, Wednesday evening.

—The band was highly entertained at the Sullivan County Club, held last Friday evening.

Co-Operative Farming Scheme in Northern New Jersey.

Charles Linnekohi, of Newark, is trying to organize a co-operative farming company. He wants fifty men to each put $200 into the scheme and with it proposes to buy unimproved land in Sussex or Warren counties, which it is expected can be bought for $10 or $15 per acre. The land when cleared will be divided into small farms of ten or fifteen acres each. Houses will be built from the general fund and all produce sold will be for general account.

Just Married.

How loving they are; this is always a sure sign. After the first year sometimes it don't hold good. When Charles comes home to you grouty and cross, snapping and snarling, unable to relish the nice dinner you have cooked, and feels as if there was a ton of pig iron in his stomach, he is troubled with dyspepsia, and Sulphur Bitters is the only medicine that will cure him.

INSTRUCTION IN MUSIC

Commencing first week in Sept. The study of voice development involves a far more important fact than correct singing, requiring a correct use of the lungs and throat on which in many cases, one's health depends. The practice of singing correctly is calculated to bring about the healthy action and development of muscles which other systems have lain dormant, and the breathing exercises are of incalculable value to those inclined to pulmonary weakness. Write me or call at Middletown Music Store and have time assigned you for a trial lesson free. CHARLES H. FULLER
